

Celticity

Professor Sir Barry Cunliffe and Professor John Koch think that the Celticisation of Europe spread from the Atlantic facade of the Late Bronze Age rather than from the Iron Age cultures of Hallstatt C, Austria, and La Tène, Switzerland. We agree. See Celtic from the West (2010) and Celtic from the West 2 (2013) which we sell.

The old view of how Europe became Celticised.

The new view of how Europe became Celticised. The earliest attested Celtic script is from the ancient kingdom of Tartessos c.7th century BC.
